

What did God make, and what did man make?

Instructions: Print the pictures, cut them out, give them to the students, and have them stack on the left the things God made and on the right the things that men made. Also, the teacher may print out the pictures and give the students the sheets of pictures and a bright color crayon or marker and have the students cross out the things that God did not make and circle the things that God made.

