

Stoning of Stephen Sequencing Game

A group of Jews from the Synagogue argued with Stephen about Jesus being the Son of God.

The Jews arrested Stephen and charged him with blasphemy.

Stephen delivered the longest single speech in the book of Acts in front of the Sanhedrin.

Stephen called the Jews betrayers and murders.

Stephen looked up and said that he could see Jesus sitting at the right hand of God in heaven.

Stephen was dragged out of the city and stoned to death.

After Stephen's death, the Jews tried to stop anyone who tried to spread the message of Jesus.

Many Christians left Jerusalem and went to many different places sharing the story of Jesus.
